VALLEY OUTDOOR TRACK PRE-CHAMPIONSHIP FAVORITES NORTHERN IOWA MEN AND ILLINOIS STATE WOMEN TAKE TEAM LEAD

(One Meet Record Set; Illinois State's Barrett and Wichita State's Dreyer Repeat as Champions)

WICHITA, Kan. -- The pre-championship team favorites to win the 2000 Missouri Valley Conference Outdoor Track and Field titles stayed true to form as the Northern Iowa men and Illinois State women took early the early lead on the second day of competition at Cessna Stadium. The Panthers, who scored 60 points, have a 27-point advantage over Indiana State heading into "Championship Saturday." The defending men's champion Illinois State is currently sixth in the seven-team field.

The highlights of the day in the men's competition were Northern Iowa junior Jacob Pauli in the pole vault and Illinois State senior Tom Barrett in the hammer. Pauli, the defending champion rewrote the meet record he set a year ago at the Valley Outdoor Championship in Carbondale, Ill. He cleared 18 feet two inches, which surpassed the old mark of 17-8 1/2.

The Redbirds' Barrett, meanwhile, added yet another chapter to his storied career as he claimed the hammer throw title with a toss of 211 feet, six inches. The title is Barrett's tenth of his career and is the most throwing crowns ever won by an individual in league history. Barrett also became the first athlete in the history of the conference to win the hammer in three-consecutive seasons and is the second athlete to win the title three times. Southern Illinois' Dan Armentrout won the event in 1994, 1995 and 1997.

On the women's side of the track, Illinois State holds a slim four-point edge over host Wichita State (53-49). The Shockers, picked to finish sixth in the pre-championship poll, had three winners which accounted for 30 team points. Senior Marina Dreyer won her second-consecutive 3,000-meter title with a season-best time of 10:01.48. She became the fifth two-time winner in Valley history, with the last being Illinois State's Sue Daggert who won back-to-back titles in 1996-97. Senior Mellanee Welty won the pole vault crown with a leap of 11-11 3/4 inches which ties her league-leading mark set on April 22 at the KU Relays and freshman Allison Berry took home the javelin title for WSU, with a career-best mark of 149 feet.

Other final event winners were: Senior Melissa Wheeler of Illinois State (shot put: 44-11); Southern Illinois junior Brock Lovelace (javelin: 198-5); Senior Trudi Garrett of SMS (long jump: 19-8) and Drake senior Matt Gabrielson (3,000-meter Steeplechase: 8:56.25).

Tomorrow (May 20) is the final day of the 2000 Valley Outdoor Track Championship. The field competition begins at 9:30 a.m. with the track events set to start at 1 p.m.
